Romance, food on tap in Rosendal

WHERE better to spend a romantic Valentine's weekend than at the Rosendal Fees? Rosendal village in the Eastern Free State is picturesquely situated amid mountains, dams and rolling plains

Join the vibrant local community in a celebration of the people, products and place. Local food and craft stalls, exhibition openings, innovative performance art, "Shisa Nyama", live music and theatre, dinners, dancing... and plenty of fun and laughter.

Horse and carriage rides will bring back the past to showcase the village.

In addition to a live performance in the Theatre by Nadia Louw, classic movies will also be screened.

In the stalls you will find exclusive handmade arts and crafts and select farm products that would normally cost you an arm and a leg to purchase in the city.

For example, homemade butter, fresh farm milk, locally made chicken rolls, delicious cheese, home-canned fruits, jams and chutneys. Home-made beer will be on tap from a micro-brewery.

And food will be available in informal or formal surroundings ranging from the restaurant at the Rosendal Country Retreat boutique hotel, to the Koffiistoep to informal wors rolls at a stall.

Being Valentine's weekend, the main theme will be love. Love of nature, creative arts and of people. Happenings are from February 12-14.
